ILLINOIS
COMMERCE COMMISSION
APR 28 10 47 AM '00
CHIEF CLERK'S OFFICE

REPLY BRIEF ON EXCEPTIONS

NOW COMES Central Illinois Light Company ("CILCO") by its attorneys, DEFREES & FISKE, pursuant to Section 200.830 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and respectfully submits its Reply Brief on Exceptions to the Hearing Examiner's Proposed Order, dated April 21, 2000.

CILCO does not support the Commonwealth Edison Company's (ComEd) Brief on Exceptions, Exception 2, which proposes the Commission enter an interim order. With the granting of an interim order, Period B market values would go into effect which will likely disadvantage customers selecting delivery services. As proposed, the market value for Period B will create exceptionally high customer transition charges (CTCs) which will strongly discourage any customer from leaving ComEd supply from September 2000 to May 2001. Consequently, there will be very little if any customer switching during this period.
